Legion Holds Encampment at Stowe

Successful County Meeting—Fine Program—Next Encampment on Top of Mount Mansfield—Dr. Bates Re-elected Commander for Third Year.

Ideal weather marked the third annual encampment of the Lamoille members of the American Legion held last Friday at Stowe with Donald McMahon Post, so that all the program, much of which was out of doors, could all be carried out as advised.

The boys are very enthusiastic over the genuine and hearty welcome they received from not only the Post at Stowe, but the people, all of whom tried to make the boys feel that their great services during the war were appreciated.

The out of town program included music by the Stowe Military Band, remarks by County Commander Dr.
George L. Bates of Morrisville, an address by Rev. C. F. Stenlake of Johnson.

An interesting feature was the basketball game played on Main street in front of the Akeley Memorial building. Wooden structures were erected to hold up the baskets.

The players were members of the Legion throughout the county.
Charles Silloway and Earl Morrill of Morrisville were the captains. The game resulted in a score of 30 to 16 in favor of the Silloway team.

The business meeting followed in the local Legion rooms in the Memorial building, when the following officers were elected: Commander, Dr.
George L. Bates of Morrisville, re-elected for the third year; vice-commander, R. R. McMahon of Stowe; adjutant, F. J. Stewart of Hyde Park; financial officer, T. H. Waterman of Johnson; executive committee, chairman, Dr. Lloyd Robinson of Morrisville, Gale H. Straw of Stowe, Webster Goodrow of Hyde Park, Gaylord Westover of Jeffersonville, B. A. Thomas of Johnson.

It was voted to hold the annual meeting next year at Hyde Park in early December.

A suggestion was made to hold the next encampment on top of Mt.
Mansfield met with general approval.

A Board of Trade for Morrisville

Meeting Thursday Night at Randall to Revive Board of Trade—Banquet—T. B. Wright, President Burlington Chamber of Commerce, Principal Speaker.

The business men, and all interested in the future of Morrisville, are invited and urged to attend a meeting at The Randall Thursday night of this week.

Mr. Randall will furnish one of the best banquets, for which this hotel is noted.

After the feed everyone interested in Morrisville, its growth and prosperity, in years to come, is asked to come and tell what they think ought or could be done to make this a busier and better village.

Other places no larger than Morrisville have some such organization that is looking out for its interests in every good way.

Why not Morrisville?
Some 60 odd have been seen and promise to be present and all say we ought to have some such an organization.

Every member of the old Board of Trade is invited and urged to be present. We want your advice and your help.

Remember, tomorrow night at the Randall at eight o'clock.

Come and let us all join hands in a real get-together meeting for Morrisville.

Morrisville Man Shot

Frank E. Small Murdered in Boston by Gunman who tried to Rob Him

The Boston dailies of Saturday and since have been full of the shocking murder of Frank E. Small, son of Levi Small, Esq., of the Randolph road, and a graduate of P. A., class of 1895, Friday night in his drug store in the Dorchester district of Boston by a food pad gunman.

The despatch was not received by his parents and friends until noon Saturday and Henry Small and wife immediately left for Boston and the body was brought here for burial last night.

It seems from the different accounts that the gunman, Albert Bartlett, alias John S. Williams, et al., is a notorious criminal and wanted in many cities for similar crimes.

He entered the store and asked for a money order and when Mr. Small stopped to the safe to get the book or money, the gunman followed and tried to hold him. Some notion of Mr. Small led him to shoot, grab the money in the safe; cowed the clerks with the smoking revolver; com-mandered an auto in front of the store, and forced the driver to beat it for the country until the gas ran out. He then took to the woods, but was quickly found and arrested. He was caught tearing up a parcel check for bag; the pieces were put together and the bag found at the South Station. It contained a lot of forged stock certificates, forged letters of introduction, etc., from banks throughout the country.

Frank E. Small, who was so brutally murdered, leaves besides his father, three brothers, Henry H. and Allen B., who live in town, and Walter L. of Concord, Calif.; his wife and one son, four years old. He was born Feb. 24, 1875. His wife was Miss Addie Littlefield of Kennebunkport, Me. They visited in town less than a month ago.

An appropriate obituary notice will appear next week.

The idea of this is to bivouac, a la guerre, on the brow of this old hill, and have revile in the morning with the rising sun. A committee has this in charge.

Distinguished guests included State Commander Allen M. Fletcher of Burlington and Captain Randall of the state activities committee of Burlington.

A six o'clock banquet was served at the Memorial building to members of the Legion and friends by the Women's Relief Corps. Carroll's orchestra played for dancing afterward.

Relief Corps Gives Banquet to Lamoille County Legion

The ladies of the H. H. Smith Woman's Relief Corps served a banquet to 75 members of the Lamoille county American Legion Association and friends at the banquet hall Friday evening. Remarks were made by State Commander Allen M. Fletcher of Burlington and representatives from each post present spoke, including County Commander Dr.
George L. Bates of Morrisville, F. H.
Stuart of Hyde Park, R. R. McMahon of Stowe, the Rev. D. S. Stenlake of Johnson, Gaylord Westover of Jeffersonville and a representative from Chittenden County Post also spoke.

The hall was decorated with crepe paper streamers, national blue and dark amber, the colors of the local post, asters, potted plants and woodbine tinged in autumn colors. The favors were attractive crepe paper hats. Carroll's orchestra furnished music during the supper and for dancing, which followed in the auditorium. About 100 couples attended.
The adjoining towns were all represented. The hall was decorated with crepe paper and flags, the Donald McMahon Post, American Legion flag, which was suspended from the balcony, was surrounded with 16 lighted electric bulbs, which made a pretty setting.

Those interested in the get-together, talk-it-over for a "Busier and Better Morrisville," are very fortunate in being able to secure as the speaker at the banquet, Thomas B.
Wright of Burlington, who is not only the president of the live Chamber of Commerce in that city, but has been instrumental in helping form many similar organizations in the state.

He is a forcible speaker and no man in Vermont is more interested in seeing the state grow and develop along sane and progressive lines.
Do not miss an opportunity to hear what other places, with less than half the attractions and potential possibilities of Morristown, are doing.

There is no scheme in view, nothing startling in the minds of the promoters of this gathering, beyond getting all interested in Morrisville together, for a heart-to-heart talk regarding the future of our village.
"United We Stand, Divided We Fall," is just as true today as when first spoken; as is another trite saying, "If we do not move forward, we surely slide back." Nothing is stationary.

The first meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association will be held Oct.
23, to which the public is invited.
Special preparations are under way to make the meeting of interest to all. Remember the date.

Senator Cummings of Iowa, president pro tem of the U. S. Senate, and Senator and Mrs. Rawson of Iowa and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rawson of Des Moines and Mr. and Mrs. Stephens of Craftsbury were callers of Senator Page Sunday.

The first meeting of the Woman's Home Culture Club for the season will be held at the library this evening; subject, "Education," in charge of Mrs. Delta McFarland, Mrs. Florence Newton, Mrs. Flora Brown and Mrs.
Clarinda Larabee.

Primary Costs
P. A. Hollenbeck and B. E. Reynolds Spend the Most Money

The following is a statement of the expenditures of candidates for nominations at the primary in Lamoille county:

County senator, B. E. Reynolds, $40.60. County judges: J. C. Benson, none; P. A. Hollenbeck, $49.10.
County sheriff, E. E. Holmes, $6.60.
State's attorney, W. E. Tracy, none.
Judge of probate, Noyes G. Wood, 56 cents. High bailiff, E. G. Godette, none.

The democratic nominee for senator at the primary, Walter D. Strong, none.

INTERSCHOLASTIC TRACK MEET Next Saturday the annual track meet of the schools of Morrisville, Craftsbury, Hardwick, Stowe, Waterbury and Jeffersonville will be held on the Lamoille Valley Fair grounds.

This is the big event of the school year and, judging by the interest shown heretofore, there will be a big crowd out to "see the best team win."

Of course, we all hope P. A. has that team and all ought to go and "root" for her. It will be worth seeing, anyway.

A Car of Coal
There was a surprise party Friday when a carload of pea coal was set out here.

True, it is not the popular size, but it is coal and much easier to burn in either furnace, range or stove than soft coal. When another car of coal will arrive, no one knows. Mr.
Slayton thinks pea coal can be had if there is a demand for it. This coal sold at $16 a gross ton delivered and is all coal, apparently.

A yearling bull being shipped by express over the St. J. & L. C. Railroad, broke out of his crate at St.
Johnsbury last week and owned the town for a while until the express employees rallied forces sufficient to recapture him.
